PRESS RELEASE

The Royal Canadian Legion
Ontario Command

“The Military Service Recognition Book Project”

Ontario Command is proud to introduce the publishing of our very first Military Service Recognition Book. A book that will assist us in identifying and recognizing many of our Veterans within the Province of Ontario, while at the same time assist us in our job as the “Keepers of Remembrance”.

This Military Service Recognition Book will serve as a reminder for generations to come of the contributions made towards the creation of our nation and the continuance of Canada as a protector of freedom.

We invite you to visit your local Legion Branch to obtain more information on how to submit stories or a military biography and a photo of Veterans. Recognition of our Veterans both past and present should be important to us all; help us give our Veterans the recognition they deserve!

With the help of our Veterans and their families and friends our first book is scheduled to be published and released in September of 2014.

Although this program is about Remembrance and the history of our Veterans, a telephone appeal will take place to the general public and businesses for advertising sales for the book. This telephone appeal will be conducted by the book’s publisher, Fenety Marketing.

Funds raised through the program will assist and support many Legion initiatives and assist branches to remain a viable partner in their communities.

For further information about this program please visit www.on.legion.ca or contact Mrs. Robyn Zettler at the Ontario Command Office (Toll Free) at 1-855-845-VETS (8387) or email info@on.legion.ca
